

EATER

DINING OUT IN NY

The Best Restaurants in Midtown, According to Eater Editors

Fine dining, fast-casual, and a great pub burger are all available in the neighborhood

by Melissa McCart

Four Twenty Five

The Midtown power spot from Jean-Georges Vongerichten features dramatic architecture, designed by Lord Norman Foster, whose firm is behind big projects like London's City Hall, and Lusail Stadium in Qatar for the 2022 World Cup. An intimate dining room sits on a floating balcony accessed by a dramatic staircase, and the downstairs bar area has 45-foot ceilings and a large Larry Poons painting. It's the first time chefs Jonathan Benno and Vongerichten have worked together, with Benno bringing his Italian and New American sensibilities to the menu and Vongerichten infusing elements of Asian cuisines. There's both a tasting menu and a la carte dining. There's now a weekday power breakfast option that starts at 7 a.m.

 Book a table →

 [425 Park Ave, New York, NY, 10022, US !\[\]\(f6b0299e0b5e4340e509b71914970da0_img.jpg\)](#)

 \(212\) 751-6921

 Visit website

